

Mary Magee Gullatte, PhD, RN, ANP-BC, AOCN, FAAN

With over 33 years of oncology nursing experience, my clinical nursing background spans the specialties of Hematology/Oncology and Blood and marrow stem cell transplantation. I also have experience in solid organ transplantation and general medical surgical nursing. I completed my undergraduate nursing studies at the University of Southern Mississippi, earned a Masters of Nursing Degree for Emory University School of Nursing in 1981, in the specialty of Adult Health with a clinical specialty in oncology. In 1995, I completed a Post Masters Adult Nurse Practitioner program, at Emory. As a Nurse Practitioner, I focus on Primary care of the adult population. I hold an Adjunct Faculty position at the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing at Emory University. I have practiced in dual administrative and clinical roles since 1982. May 2008 graduate of the University of Utah, College of Nursing with a PhD in cancer nursing research. My present position is that of Associate Chief Nursing Officer, at Emory University Hospital Midtown, Atlanta, Georgia. Thirty year volunteer with the American Cancer Society.

I have presented numerous national and international oncology related topics; Including, most recently at the Cancer Congress in Heidelberg, Germany, June 2011; as visiting faculty for the Global Breast Health Initiative in Accra, Ghana, West Africa 2010 as well as the European Oncology nursing society in Den Haag, The Netherlands in 2010. In 2008 visiting faculty in Manila, Philippines, and in 2006 Oahu Chapter of the Oncology Nursing Society in Honolulu, and in 2004 at the International Society of Nurses in Cancer Care, in Sydney, Australia, and before that in Oslo, Norway, in 2000. I have had the opportunity to contribute to the body of published professional literature through articles and book chapters. Editor of Nursing Management: Principles and Practice ONS Publisher (2005). This book was selected as the AJN Book of the Year for 2005, in the leadership and management category, the 2nd edition released April 2011. I am also the Editor of the Chemotherapy Handbook, 2001 with the 2nd Edition published 2007 selected as the 2008 APEX Book of the Year. Both books published by the Oncology Nursing Press. Elected President-elect of the National Oncology Nursing Society in May 2011.

I am the recipient of the ONS Linda Areth Oncology Nursing Manager of the Year award, as well as the recipient of the ONS 2003 Patient and Public Education Award. 2004 Georgia Nurses Association: Nurse of the Year and recipient of the Chi Eta Phi Nursing Sorority 2007 Nursing Achievement Award. Recipient of a 2006 and 2007 Susan G. Komen Greater Atlanta Affiliate, breast cancer public education grant totaling $90,000. In 2011 awarded the Pinnacle Award for consistent contributions to community service, presented by the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., College Park, Georgia Chapter.

I am a wife and mother of two adult children, Rodney, Jr., and Ronda. They are both married. We have two lovely granddaughters from our son and daughter-in-law, Iris. The grand's are ages 4 years (Mary Carmen Gullatte) and 1 year (Tatiana Isabella Gullatte). Iris is active duty in the US Air Force. They are currently stationed in Key West, FL. . Ronda is a post collegiate athlete, high school coach, and graduated with Master of Science in Biology with a concentration in Bioinformatics at Georgia State University. She

ISNCC Head Office
Malachite Management Inc.
375 West, 5th Ave, Suite 201
Vancouver, BC, Canada V5Y 1J6
T. 604.630.5516 F. 604.874.4378
W. www.isncc.org E. info@isncc.org

and husband Ryan have been married 2+ years. They live here in Atlanta. No pressure to have local grand-children (lol).

I am honorably discharged US Air Force, Vietnam era veteran. My avocation includes: cooking, sewing, watercolor painting and writing. My mother and I published a family cookbook in 1984. I teach 3rd and 4th grade Sunday school. I hold professional membership in ONS, ANA, and Sigma Theta Tau. Member of the Lance Armstrong Foundation (LiveStrong Survivorship Steering Committee), 2008-present. Inducted into the American Academy of Nursing in 2010.

ISNCC Head Office
Malachite Management Inc.
375 West, 5th Ave, Suite 201
Vancouver, BC, Canada V5Y 1J6
T. 604.630.5516 F. 604.874.4378
W. www.isncc.org E. info@isncc.org