

Sultan Kav, RN, PhD

Baskent University Faculty of Health Sciences, Department of Nursing, Ankara, Turkey

Dr Sultan Kav began her nursing career following graduation from nursing school in 1991. She continued her educational pursuits and received her BSN, MSN and PhD degrees from Hacettepe University School of Nursing in Ankara, Turkey. Dr Kav has held a range of nursing positions, including clinical nurse, nurse supervisor, oncology nurse educator and research coordinator. She currently works as a faculty member at Baskent University, Institute of Health Sciences Department of Nursing in Ankara, Turkey.

Dr Kav has organized and coordinated continued learning programs for nurses who work in the area of oncology at several institutions; these include basic cancer education courses, comprehensive chemotherapy educational programs and stem cell transplantation nurse education programs. She is an active member of national and international oncology nursing organizations; currently President of the European Oncology Nursing society (EONS).