

Past Presidents' Award

Purpose:

This award was given for the first time at the biennial conference of the ISNCC in the year 2000. It is given in recognition of a cancer nurse from a developing country who has initiated and sustained a programme of cancer care in her/his country which has been in place for three or more years and has the potential for replication or adaptation beyond the country's borders.

The successful awardee will receive a travel scholarship to the International Conference on Cancer Nursing in order to be present to receive their award, an honorarium of US$500.00 honorarium and a certificate of recognition.

Criteria

The recipient of this award:

- § Should be a cancer nurse from a developing country.
- § Has initiated in her/his country a programme of cancer care in the arena of cancer education; cancer prevention, early detection and/or screening; nursing care of patients with cancer including palliative care; and/or the development of cancer related health policy.
- § Has provided evidence of sustaining the programme for three or more years.
- § Presents evidence of outcomes achieved.
- § Has developed a programme of cancer care which can be replicated or adapted in other countries.
- § May be self nominated or nominated by others.
- § Nominee must provide a brief narrative of the work, up to 200 words.
- § Current ISNCC Board of Directors are not eligible for an award.

Please note:

Two supporting letters are required for all candidates.

Selection Process

- § The ISNCC requires that a standing committee deal with the nominations for the Past Presidents' Award.
- § This committee will be responsible for following up each nomination to ensure that the nomination criteria are met.
- § The list of nominations will be forwarded to each committee member and the nominations ranked.
- § The committee will then recommend their selection to the board. Successful nominees will receive the unanimous support of the board.
- § The President of ISNCC will contact the successful nominee.
- § The Chair of the standing committee is responsible for notifying the organisations whose nominees were unsuccessful.

NB: In the event that no nomination achieves the required standard, no award will be made
